1. Government factories in Mukden are experiencing difficulties because of deterioration of machines and lack of parts for repairs. Low salaries have caused many Japanese technicians to resign from plants, and Soviet technicians, who do not receive salaries but are given enough to live on, have replaced them.
2. At the end of 1949, 3,700 small firms and shops applied for government permission to close their establishments.*
3. The highest monthly salary received by Chinese workers is Northeast Currency (NEC) 2,900,000. NEC 18 is equal to 1 Jen Min Piao (JMP). Gold is exchanged at NEC 13,500,000 per ounce.
